The School Journal tells of a lady just returned from the Hampton, Va., Training School, where the Indians are so successfully taught, who expressed her surprise and delight at the desire and aptness to learn. Though herself a person of no mean attainments, she declares that she was ashamed to find these poor Indians knew some things with a clearness surpassing her own. Now, remember, it is but a few years since that it was deemed impossible to teach the Indians; it was believed apparently that the Creator had given them minds that could not be educated. But that delusion has been dispelled. What we want to call attention to is the mode of the solution of the question of Indian education. Why has there been such failure in the past? Because the methods employed were bad methods. In other words, the Indian is educated because we know more about education than we did. There is no other cause. The Indian was not educated heretofore because we did not know how. The story of the attempt to educate the Indian, if well told, would throw light on the crudeness of teaching in past years. If the Indian has suffered, so has the white man. It is not that one kind will educate one and not the other. It may not be pleasant to say that teaching in our schools has been unmethodical, and in most schools is so still; but no other inference can be drawn from a calm consideration of the case. When the New York State Normal School was founded it was thought to be a good thing to admit Indian youth; but after a trial lasting several years it was deemed impracticable, if not impossible, and they were dismissed. They were put into classes in mental arithmetic, for example, and problems read to them, and as they could not solve them it was said, "You cannot educate an Indian the same as you can a white man." It never occurred to question whether the white man was thus educated. Hundreds of instances of failure to educate the white pupils by the usual methods could be pointed out. There was failure for both white and the copper-colored as well. There has been a study of methods for many years and it has been fruit for the Indian. There is much more to be discovered.

The weekly review of Dun & Co. for last week has many points of interest. After noticing the depressing effect which the stormy Spring months always have upon trade, it says:

The business of the past month has been remarkably large, not only at New York and Boston; Chicago reports a phenomenal trade, and other cities as well. Largely this business has been in anticipation of demands for sixty days to come, or more, based on the prevailing belief that goods could be laid down at less cost than after the Act had gone into effect. Hence it is scarcely possible that a noteworthy unseasonable reaction should not now be felt, while the influence of the Act upon future contracts, production and distribution is yet to be ascertained.

Of the new railroad law it says: The opinion grows that the Interstate Act will help the railroads rather than commerce. Many features are pointed out in which it seems to have been framed expressly for their interests. Its evident tendency is to cause lower charges on local traffic, which is the smaller, and higher charges on the long through traffic, which for important roads is the larger. It cuts off many rebates, passes, special rates to commercial travelers, agents, and attendants of freight, and this alone will largely increase the aggregate cost of transportation to the commercial world.

Quietly but surely the women clerks are disappearing from the Departments at Washington. The officers protest that they are not discriminating against them, but it is a fact that under the present Administration the employment of women as Government clerks is not favored. Nor are clerks of either sex treated with the consideration heretofore shown them—a state of things of which the clerks complain bitterly. The clerks are also dismayed at the incursion of rich people into Washington, which makes their social position much less agreeable than formerly.

The Panhandle Train Robbers.

PITTSBURG, April 12. The wholesale arrest of employees of the Panhandle railroad for the robbing of freight trains, continues to be the engrossing topic among railroad men and citizens. Superintendent Taylor's office was besieged from early morning by men in search of employment. The road is now fully equipped, and there will be no delay in the movement of freight. No arrests have been reported since last night. Speaking of the probable conviction of the men now in jail, Special Agent Rice said this morning: "That of the 60 men now arrested, there were not more than one or possibly two, who stood any chance of being shown not guilty. The capture of J. R. Dunlap at Dennison, Ohio, particularly pleased the detectives. As stated last night, he made a confession in which he said the stealing had been going on for months. He said he could give the names of all the men implicated on the Pittsburgh division, but was afraid to do so. His language to the officers being, 'I would give you the names, but great God, they would kill me.' There was no organization among the robbers, Dunlap said, and no regular place of work; each crew worked by itself. Notwithstanding Dunlap's confession, the officers of the road believe that the plunderers were thoroughly organized and were carrying on the robberies under the systematic direction of shrewd leaders. When a new man entered the service of the road, if he was thought to be the right kind of a fellow, he was initiated into the gang with a rigid oath binding him to secrecy. A bill was introduced in the State Legislature last night which is intended to cover such cases as the railroad car robberies brought to light in this city yesterday. The bill is in the shape of an amendment to the penal code. At present there is no specific law for breaking open a car, unless it is proven that the car was forced, with an intent to commit a felony.

A State Court Reversed.

WASHINGTON, April 12. A decision was rendered by the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday, in the railroad permit case of Henry S. Baron against George Burnside, Sheriff of Lynn county, Iowa, in error from the Supreme Court of that State. The question presented by the case is the validity of an act of the General Assembly of Iowa, approved April 6, 1886, entitled an act requiring foreign corporations to file their articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, and imposing certain conditions upon such corporations transacting business in that State. The object of the act was to compel foreign railway corporations to take out a permit for the transacting of business within the State, and it was made a condition to granting of such permit, that the railroad company, if sued by a citizen of the State, shall not remove the case to a federal court. This court, in an opinion by Justice Blatchford, holds that as the Iowa statute makes the right to a permit dependent upon the surrender of a foreign corporation, privileges secured to it by the constitution and laws of a United States statute, is void. The judgment of the Supreme Court of Iowa is reversed, and the case remanded, with directions to enter judgment, discharging plaintiff in error from custody. The corporation concerned in this case is the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company.

A Partial Arrangement.

CHICAGO, April 12. At a meeting of the striking carpenters yesterday, an organization was formed to be known as the Independent Master Carpenters Association. The terms of the strikers were at once acceded to, on condition that the strike be declared off so far as the members of the new association of employers are concerned. This was agreed to by the strikers, and it is expected that about one-eight of the men will thus resume work immediately on the 8-hour plan, at 35 cents an hour. The dispute to be settled is not between the employer and employee, but between the Carpenters Union and Masters Association. The result marks an important divergence from the programme declared by the carpenters at the beginning of the strike. They then announced that no carpenters would be allowed to return to work until all the contractors give in, or the strike as a whole was declared a failure.

A Shocking Mine Accident.

POITTSVILLE, Pa., April 11. A shocking accident occurred in the mine of the Chamberlain Colliery at St. Clair this afternoon. Miss Berilata Shaul, of Sharon Springs, N. Y., a student at Vassar College was visiting Miss Minnie Kerter, a St. Clair fellow student. The two young ladies, in company with two young men named Harry Short and Edwin Thompson, one of the operators of the colliery, entered the mine for the purpose of giving Miss Shaul an opportunity to inspect the operations of mining coal.

The mine had not been worked for a week, and none but the explorers were inside at the time. In an adjacent working, however, were Albert Thompson, another one of the firm, and several others who were making examinations of the works. They were startled by a heavy explosion, and knowing that the party had entered the other slope they hastened there to investigate. About 150 yards from the foot of the slope they came upon Messrs. Short and Thompson and the two ladies lying upon the ground, some of them unconscious, and all frightfully burned and mangled. They were taken out as speedily as possible and medical attendance obtained.

Miss Kerter's face was burned beyond recognition, her skull and thigh fractured and her ankle crushed. She died this evening. Miss Shaul had a leg badly fractured and was terribly bruised and burned, but may survive. Short's head is a mass of cuts and contusions, and he is badly burned. He remains unconscious, and his recovery is doubtful. Thompson is painfully, but not fatally burned. The precise cause of the explosion is unknown, but the supposition is that the party carried a naked lamp and encountered a body of fire-damp, which, igniting from the lamp, exploded with tremendous force.

More Hotels Burned.

Boston, April 12. A dispatch from St. Augustine, Florida, dated to-day, says the St. Augustine hotel took fire at 2:30 this morning and was destroyed. The old slave market is also gone, and an ancient cathedral is in flames. The Edwards hotel and a half dozen small buildings are also on fire, and it seems inevitable that the Florida House and opera house must go. The danger of the destruction of the whole town is imminent. All of the guests at the St. Augustine got out in safety, as did also all the help of that house, and the guests and servants of the Edwards House.

At 5:30 A. M. the fire had been stopped at Treasury street, and the main portion of the town is safe. The county court house and Veddors museum were destroyed. The loss on the St. Augustine hotel is $100,000; no insurance.

John T. Raymond's Remains.

NEW YORK, April 12. The remains of the late John T. Raymond arrived here to-day. Manager Walter A. Lamb and five members of his company arrived with the body. A deputation of actors met the funeral party at the depot. The temporary coffin containing the body was taken to the residence of Mrs. Raymond in East 32d street. The face wore a natural expression. Services will be held at the Little church around the corner, at 10:30 A. M. to-morrow. It is feared by some of the friends of Raymond that he may have died from an overdose of morphine, as it is asserted by one who was at Raymond's bedside when he died, that after the administration of morphine, he never recovered consciousness.

Destructive Prairie Fire.

KANSAS CITY, April 12. A disastrous prairie fire is raging in Phillips and Norton counties, Kansas. It started Saturday morning near Edmon, where four houses were burned, and crossing the Central Branch railroad, has extended northwesterly to Norcorat, having destroyed quite a number of houses, with all other perishable property in its track. It is reported that from nine to twelve persons have perished, but the facts cannot be definitely learned, owing to the injury to the telegraph wires.

Still Improving.

FORT GIBSON, April 12. Blaine, after eating a good supper of bread and milk last evening, passed a fairly quiet night, and this morning was still improving. An examination of his lungs by Post Surgeon Byrne, showed that the inflammation was subsiding, and there has been no fever since Sunday. He ate a hearty breakfast this morning, and Byrne states that with the weather in its present favorable condition, and his appetite as it now is, Blaine will be well enough to travel in a few days.

A Fear of Pleuro Pneumonia.

WASHINGTON, April 12. Governor Hughes, of Arkansas, has telegraphed the Commissioner of Agriculture, asking that an inspector be sent to that State to examine some herds of cattle suspected of having pleuro pneumonia. An inspector has been ordered there from Chicago.

Their Commissions Issued.

WASHINGTON, April 12. The President has signed the commissions of Messrs. Pattison, Anderson and Litter as commissioners to investigate the Pacific railroads and has sent them to the Secretary of the Interior for issue.

Carried Their Point.

CINCINNATI, April 12. The contractors have to-day acceded to the demands of the striking carpenters, and about 650 men are at work.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

Great Rejoicing.

ST. JOHNS, April 12. The sealing steamship, Eagle, which arrived here yesterday reports that the debris and apparent wreckage of the ship's name, found on the ice, were flung overboard to make room for seals. There is great rejoicing among the sealers families over the arrival of the supposed lost steamer.

Reprehensible if True.

CORK, April 12. A letter from Mr. Kennedy appears in the Cork Herald, saying that the suspicious vessel seen off Youghal, is the "Gulnare," which left an American port ten days ago. He says it is a part of a government plot to treat the people to a scare, in order to assist in passing the Coercion bill, and that the vessel will cruise between Queens-town and Youghal, and try to entrap men to assist in landing dynamite, when the government agents will be ready to seize them. Mr. Kennedy asserts that the plot was originated at Dublin Castle.

The Emperor's Regrets.

BERLIN, April 12. Emperor William's private Secretary, in replying to a loyal address sent to the Emperor from the Metz municipal council, said: "His Majesty much regrets that illness prevented him from making his proposed visit to Metz last Autumn."

Threatened With Death.

LONDON, April 12. A Times correspondent at St. Petersburg says it is reported that the Czar, before returning to Gatchina on Wednesday, found letters on his writing table in the Winter palace, threatening him with death.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

A Special Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12. An election is being held to-day in California to ratify three amendments to the State Constitution, which were adopted by the last Legislature. Amendment number one, provides the method of the selection of a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and for the continuance of the Supreme Court Commission. Amendment number two provides for an increase of the salaries of the Supreme Judges, the Supreme Court Commissioners and of a number of Superior Judges. Amendment number three provides that any city of 10,000 inhabitants, or more, may adopt a charter for itself, instead of having its charter decreed by the Legislature. An election is also being held in this city for the adoption of the new charter.

No More Small-Pox.

LOS ANGELES, April 12. Hagan, the city health officer, reports that the city has probably seen the last of the small-pox. No new cases have appeared for two weeks, and the incubative period has more than passed.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Bar silver, 94 3/4.

At the anti-coercion demonstration at Hyde Park, London, yesterday, the mention of Mr. Chamberlain's name caused a universal shout of "traitor."

NOTINGS.

New collarettes at F. Levy & Bro's.

Very latest richings at F. Levy & Bro's.

International prize medals were given St. Jacobs Oil as the best pain-cure.

Something new by way of ladies' hand-satchels just received at F. Levy & Bro's.

E. A. Clark, U. S. Architect, Washington, endorses Red Star Cough Cure. 25 cents.

Those desiring violin and banjo lessons will find Frank B. Harper's card in the 50-cent column.

Besides as complete a stock of as fine groceries as can be found in town, M. T. Barnett carries nails, tobacco, crockery, glassware, vegetables and fruit.

Thomas Barnett will be back from San Francisco the last of this week with one of the finest stocks of ladies', misses' and children's shoes ever opened in this town.

John Sunderland's boot and shoe customers never find any difficulty in obtaining a complete fit, for out of his immense stock, the exact size and shape can always be found.

Under the head of "New To-day" will be found the advertisement of Nasby, the enterprising stationer, 35 Commercial Row. He has just received a number of the very latest novels.

On the arrival of this morning's overland, the large dining-rooms of the Palace Restaurant were quickly filled with hungry passengers who had heard of the fame of that popular eating house.

No more complete a line of the best family groceries can be found in the largest store in the State than is being carried by E. C. Leadbetter. All purchases neatly put up and promptly delivered.

Their many years service as grocery clerks in Reno, has made Coffin & Larcombe thoroughly acquainted with the wants of this community, and they never fail to be able to promptly fill all orders.

J. Frazer's display of meats is difficult to surpass even in this beef-raising and meat consuming country, and his prices are no higher than you are obliged to pay for a quality that requires all day to cook.

An examination of the current literature to be seen on C.A. Thurston's counters will convince you that he thoroughly understands the literary tastes of this community. He also keeps all kinds of legal blanks.

After the completion of the improvements now under way, the proprietors of the Depot Hotel will have no trouble in feeding the largest train-load of passengers that ever crossed the continent. The local patronage of this popular hostelry is also daily increasing.

It is always a pleasure to deal with polite people. C. J. Brookins appreciated the above when he secured the services of his present efficient and obliging clerk, who takes your money so politely that you do not feel that your purchase has cost you anything.

Ask for Fryer's Abietene Cough Balsam. Take no other. It is the most pleasant and best cough and lung remedy in the world. It contains no opium. Price, 75 cents. Sold by W. Pluniger, Reno, Nevada. All genuine Abietene preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

All Things Change.

The style of curtains, as can now be seen at the enterprising store of F. Levy & Bro., are rich and beautiful, and range in price from 75c. per pair all the way up as one may choose. Their new serims, madras and antique curtains are lovely, indeed. They also have a large assortment of portieres which are now generally used instead of doors between connecting rooms.

Merit Will Tell.

Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Abietene Remedies" were awarded diplomas at the late California State Fair at Sacramento and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. W. Pluniger is agent for these celebrated "Abietene Remedies" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

Calling a Halt.

The appropriation bills now pending before the Illinois Legislature for two years outlay, provide for an expenditure of between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000, and the papers are energetically calling a halt.

LOCAL NEWS.

Happenings of the Day in Reno and Vicinity.

Arbor Day.

The Arbor Day exercises to-morrow afternoon at the High School promise to be of an interesting character and are deserving of the presence of not only the parents and guardians of the pupils but others. Arrangements will, if possible, be made to supply each of the children with a tree to plant. This morning only a small number had been obtained. The day is one worthy of observation by all, for certainly there is no State in the Union that needs more tree-planting than Nevada.

The "Mikado" Saturday Night.

The Carleton Opera Company, to appear at the Nevada Theater next Saturday night, is spoken of by the press as not only the strongest organization but the largest, numerically, opera comique troupe traveling. It approaches as near perfection as experience, care and liberality can secure.

Seats are now on sale at Thurston's bookstore.

Under New Management.

Messrs. Wells & Pothoff, who secured, the other day, a lease of the Reno Stables, opposite the Depot Hotel, have commenced business in good shape. Several first-class turnouts have been added. Transient stock will be carefully attended to. Rigs of all kinds are to be had day or night. Horses will be boarded by the day, week or month.

Rich Ore.

Three tons of gold ore were shipped to the Reno reduction works yesterday from the Pimlico mine, near Hawthorne, a ton and a half of which netted its owners over $3,000. The shipment was made by Phillip Bauer and other tributaries. The property is owned by H. M. Yerlinton, John Forbes and Messrs. Knapp & Laws.

Death of Al Clough.

A. C. Clough, who was, last Saturday evening, dragged nearly a mile by a runaway team before the animals were caught and he released, died last night from the painful wounds and bruises that he received. During his sufferings the unfortunate man is said to have been a pitiful sight to behold.

The Lake Tahoe Tunnel Scheme.

Says the Auburn (Cal.) Republican: For some time the Truckee and Carson City papers have been much excited over the proposed plan to run a tunnel from a point just above Carson, which should tap Lake Tahoe and take a large stream of water down into Nevada for irrigation and other purposes. Among the incorporators D. M. Bliss and H. M. Yerlinton have been mentioned. Mr. Bliss was in Auburn Monday, and informed a Republican reporter that there is nothing in it. He said that the company had been formed while he was in the East a few months ago, and his name was used without his consent and knowledge. He says he would not invest one dollar in the enterprise because it is not practicable. In 1872, when the Comstock was at the height of prosperity, he thought such a tunnel would pay, and he made a contract with some of the Virginia City mining men to construct it; but the contract fell through, and he now regards the revival of the enterprise only as a scheme to sell a franchise.

Dr. Rae's New Process.

Dr. J. H. Rae returned to Dayton from San Francisco yesterday. A new and powerful dynamo electric machine was shipped to the Douglas mill and all of the pans will be supplied with his electro attachments or preventing the escape of quicksilver in a floured state and to facilitate the process of amalgamation. The mill will be started up next Saturday, and the Doctor will be pleased to give all visitors an opportunity to inspect his patent amalgamating process in successful operation.

Trouble With Their Chinamen.

A difficulty with Chinese laborers in the Cascades Saturday resulted in the wounding of several Chinamen. There has been dissatisfaction among the Chinese with their agents, and it was while the guards were endeavoring to rescue one of the agents from maltreatment that the Chinamen were wounded. They attacked the guards with stones, when the guards fired upon them.

A Desperate Sister.

There was a sensation Saturday at San Diego, Cal., when the case of Michael Clancy, charged with a felonious assault on Miss Fannie Honeg, came up. The victim's sister pulled a revolver from under her cloak, intending to shoot Clancy. She was disarmed and led out of court.

Entertainment at Lovelock.

A grand musical and literary entertainment will be given at Lovelock on the evening of the 16th instant. Among those who will be active participants are Miss Louise Marzen and her sister and Miss Nellie Ash. Several Renoites expect to be present.

PERSONAL.

M. D. Foley went below last night.

Miss Theresa Tuffy, of Carson, went below last evening.

M. Nathan and family returned this morning from San Francisco.

J. G. Laws returned this morning from a visit to his wife at San Jose, Cal.

Captain John Kelly arrived from the Comstock last evening on his way to the Bay.

Superintendent Sam Curtis, of the Comstock, returned this morning from a trip to San Francisco.

Messrs. Baker, of Eureka, and Dorsey, of Elko, and T. B. Riecke, of Douglas county, went below last night.

Lieutenant Governor Davis and Deputy U. S. Internal Revenue Collector, P. J. Dunne, arrived on to-day's noon train.

Mrs. J. O. Sessions, who went to San Francisco several weeks ago for medical treatment, has returned, much improved in health.

The residence of F. Lemmon at Peavine took fire last Sunday, but the blaze was extinguished before any material damage had been done.

Mrs. M. F. Levy, who for some time has been visiting her Reno relatives and friends, returned last evening to her home at Woodland, California.

Professor J. W. McCommon left on last evening's express train for California, where he will remain for a couple of three weeks and then visit the Yellowstone Park.

Charles Luhrs, of the Sacramento firm of Hall, Luhrs & Co., accompanied by his family, passed East this morning on the way to Europe, where they go on a visit to the scenes of the former's childhood.

New Placer Mines.

The Peoples' Cause, of Red Bluff, California, says: Quite extensive mining developments in placer mining is going on at Clover Creek, east of Milville. The Milville Mining Company has completed its ditch, and this week its pipe will arrive from San Francisco, which will be laid as soon as possible. Then panning will commence.

Young Martin, of Milville, and others, have located 160 acres further down on the creek, which prospects well. The gold is generally heavy. One nugget weighing $90 was picked up, and smaller chunks are frequently found. Young Martin thinks he can pick and shovel out a sluice-box on his ground $6 a day to the man; good ground that we are informed that about four miles of ground on Clover creek prospects first-rate, all of which can be covered with water.

Overstocked Ranges.

A correspondent from Los Cabezas, A. T., writes as follows: This is a great cattle-raising country, the Sulphur Spring Valley extending southward 75 miles to the Mexican line, and having a width of 40 to 50 miles. With overstocked ranges everywhere, there is a threatened destruction of the whole cattle interests by drought. We have had three dry Summers, and this threatens to be by far the worst of all. Eight years ago when I came here, the whole country was waving with tall, nutritious grasses, where now there is nothing but a bare gray surface. If rain does not come within a few months, dead stock will be seen everywhere by the thousand.

A Legal Holiday in California.

Judging from the fact that there was no business transacted in the San Francisco stockboards this morning, it is probable that the day, on account of the election throughout the State in connection with the new charter, was declared a legal holiday. The election is not regarded as what is termed "general"; it is rather the rendering of the popular verdict upon certain questions.

Respectfully Declined.

The Virginia Chronicle says: "Sit down and take a hand," remarked one of a quartette of professional gamblers engaged in playing poker last evening to a moneyed amateur who entered the room. "Thank you, but I have no carving knife or gun about me, and as that is the only way I could beat that combination I must reluctantly decline to accept the invitation," replied the non-professional.

Brakemen Injured.

Owing to the cars being slippery on account of rain and snow, two Central Pacific brakemen were hurt last Saturday by falling off trains. One was at Beowawe, and his name we have been unable to learn. The other, Brakeman Edwards, was injured at Winnemucca. Fortunately neither of the men were seriously injured, though both were badly bruised.

A Wise Precaution.

A druggist in Battleboro, Vt., has connected every bottle containing poison with a prescription desk by electricity, so that whenever one is touched a bell gives warning and wakes the compounder up to see, by a second look, whether he has the bottle he wants or not.

HEART DISEASE

Headache. Dr. FLEMING'S REMEDY is one of the best remedies known for headache, which is often dependent upon disease of the heart, sometimes upon nervous disease, and sometimes upon derangement of the circulation.

Convulsions. Dr. FLEMING'S REMEDY, once causes convulsions to cease, and by a proper use of the medicine will prevent their recurrence, either in children or adults.

Delirium. Dr. FLEMING'S REMEDY, when given in cases of delirium, causes the excited brain, and by securing rest for the sufferer, promotes the restoration of health.

A Double Influence. Dr. FLEMING'S REMEDY, which will cure cases of Neuralgia which other remedies have failed to reach, as it exercises a double influence, in one case over the circulation, and in the other over the nervous system.

At druggists, $1.50. Descriptive treatise with each bottle, or address

Thought They Had a Bonanza.

The Lewiston, Idaho, Teller contains the following: An amusing incident, which resulted quite fatally to a poor dog, is said to have occurred at an Indian wigwam near Lewiston, Idaho, the other day between Professor McAllister, the magician, and the noble red skins. The Indians had a small dog that the Professor took quite a fancy to, and he made himself quite familiar with the brute by patting and petting him. He asked the Indians how much they would take for him; to which they replied they did not want to sell him. The Professor said "him very valuable dog," at the same time rubbing him down the back to his tail, at each stroke taking a handful of money from the end of his tail, also from his mouth, ears and nose. At these strange proceedings the Indians stood in awe and astonishment. After the Professor left their premises, they took the dog down to the river bank, where the poor brute was doomed to die an ignominious death. There they killed and dissected him with the idea that they would reap from his carcass plenty of "boodles."

A Fact Worth Knowing.

A physician in Genesee Co., N. Y., who has used Gilmore's Aromatic Wine in his practice, for several years, recently wrote the proprietors as follows:—"I do not think you give sufficient publicity to the value of your Aromatic Wine in all cases of dysentery, cholera morbus and Summer complaints generally. I have for three seasons past used it in many severe cases of the above, and it has never failed to afford speedy and gratifying relief." No proprietary remedy has ever received such general endorsement from regular physicians of high standing as Gilmore's Aromatic Wine. For sale at Pinniger's drug store.

A Mackay Dinner.

Mrs. John W. Mackay gave a dinner party just previous to Lent and personally designed the floral arrangement of the table. The center showed a very large star, the heart being of flame shading away in the rays to the palest tint of pink as they tapered off toward the edge of the table. The places for the guests were laid just in between the rays and the effect was excellent.

About Perfumery.

Talking about the material used as perfumery, an exchange says: The animal series comprise musk, civet and ambergris. Musk is a secretion of a deer; civet is the secretion of a cat; ambergris is the diseased portion of a whale. Musk varies in price from $8 to $12.50; civet from $5 to $7.50; ambergris from $2.50 to $12.50 an ounce.
